Department of Music (Instrument)

Dev Samaj College for Women was established in 1934 by Bhagwan Dev Atma for imparting education to women. Soon, he realized the importance of Music in the emotional, intellectual and aesthetical development of the students. So, the Department of Music was established in the early years of the college. Sh. Desh Bandhu Sethi, a radio artist was the in-charge of Music classes in 1954. At that time, Music classes were compulsory only for 1st and 3rd year students. Music was introduced as an elective subject in 1962.
